Company Policies

Company Leave Policy

Full-time employees receive 20 paid vacation days annually. Leave requests must be submitted through the HR portal and approved by the employee's manager.

Remote Work Policy

Employees may request remote work with manager approval. Teams must maintain normal communication and availability during working hours.

Security Policy

Employees must enable multi-factor authentication. Production credentials must be stored securely and must never be committed to Git.